Dear Harold:

Word has just reached me here — where I've been since early June — that you sent me a certified letter which arrived shortly after I left Kansas City.

Obviously, I have not read it yet. Do you want a reply still? Well, I suppose my reaction to the letter — it does concern the series, I suppose — probably will determine that.

Anyway, this note is just to say I haven't been purposefully ignoring you, but rather, just out of touch.

Hope all goes well for you, your work, & Lil.

Regards,

J. McKinley

P.S. We all return to K.C. the end of the month, so I'll be there for any correspondence, etc.
